

Sent via email

From: "Bob Krieger"
To: <ejjustice@cdpr.ca.gov>
Date: Tue, Mar 18, 2003 10:12 AM
Subject: RE: Environmental Justice

To Proposed Editor:

What made the Air Resources Board plan successful?

Isn't environmental justice already institutionalized into daily DPR operations? I still have more oxidant air pollution than they have in San Diego, better smelling air than persons breathing near Central Valley dairies, and absorb and excrete less pesticide residue than people that harvest the food I eat. And we are ALL doing OK and are fairly treated so far as I know!

Bob Krieger
Extension Toxicologist
Personal Chemical Exposure Program
Department of Entomology
Environmental Toxicology Graduate Program
University of California, Riverside 92521
tel 909 787 3724 fax 909 787 5803